Preface

We send forth this volume with the confidence that it will serve a useful purpose in our new church, that it will have a strong unifying influence, and that it will serve as an historic marker in the years to come.

There are about 5,000 men listed in this directory. We sincerely thank all who have cooperated in supplying the requested information. We ask for the continued cooperation of anyone who may observe any errors or omissions, bringing them to our attention and giving the correct data so that we can make corrections in our records and in a subsequent edition of the volume if there should be one.

The present volume is published in accord with a resolution of the Board of Publication of The American Lutheran Church.

We consider it proper here, for the sake of the record, to introduce the roster of the Board of Publication:

DIVISION OF PUBLICATION

Executive Director and General Manager of Augsburg Publishing House, Mr. Randolph E. Haugan, LL.D.

BOARD MEMBERS

Mr. N. O. Berthelsen, Omaha, Neb.

Rev. C. E. Fischer, Port Angeles, Wash.

Rev. Martin E. Hollensen, D.D., Marion, Ohio

Mr. Garfield Kiel, Seguin, Texas

Rev. Warren A. Quanbeck, Th.D., St. Paul, Minn.

Mr. Harold Simerson, Belmond, Iowa

Mr. W. E. Singer, Bowling Green, Ohio

Rev. T. P. Solem, Saskatoon, Sask.

Mr. Willmar Thorkelson, Minneapolis, Minn.

The editorial work has been done at the editorial offices of Augsburg Publishing House in Minneapolis. Assisting the undersigned have been Dr. J. M. Jensen, of the former United Evangelical Lutheran Church, and the Rev. Carl E. Linder, of the former American Lutheran Church. The mechanical work has been done at the branch plant at Blair, Nebraska.

We have had the gracious and much appreciated cooperation of the office of the secretary of the church, Dr. William Larsen.

All men who were certified to the Clergy Roster at the time of the merger, January 1, 1961, are included. All men ordained in 1961, up to November 1, plus a few who were inadvertently missed in making up the main body of the book, are included in the Supplement.

When a man has come onto our Clergy Roster from another church body, this is indicated thus: DOE, JOHN (o. 1935 Aug., 1955 UELC).

In order to pare down the contents to the briefest essentials, certain delimiting rules were followed.

We have included only the record of what a person does in his capacity as an ordained man, in the direct service of the church or its auxiliaries. Occasional exceptions to this rule have been made, as for instance when a man has served in Gospel work on a mission field for a prolonged period before completing his theological studies and being ordained.

We have included only schools attended of college or university rank. An exception may have been made when it was not clear whether a school is of secondary or college rank, or where the naming of a church-related academy is of historical interest.

Under the rubric "Offices held" we have usually listed only those that are elective within the church body, and on a certain level, i.e., "Dist. Pres.," but not "Dist. Vice Pres." We have listed membership on an official board of the church, but not on the board of a college, for instance, nor of an auxiliary of the church, unless it is a full time position. We have not entered a man's rank as a chaplain in the armed forces, nor named the places where he has served.

Clarity has been the main goal in condensing and abbreviating. The following, for example, standing alone are perfectly clear: NYC, Chicago, Mpls., Detroit, Los Angeles, Union Sem., etc. Consistency has been sought but not always achieved. Names somewhat unfamiliar to us have often been abbreviated differently by different men supplying the data. In such cases we resorted to the basic rule "Follow copy."

Names are important. We consider it a worthy tribute to the parents and to the wife of a clergyman to include their names. In some cases it is obvious that foster parents are named in the vita, or that an individual has simplified a rather difficult family name, or that he has taken a completely different ancestral family name, sometimes taking the family name of his mother.

Names of schools appearing frequently are abbreviated as follows, and their former affiliation and present location are given. These are only the schools that are affiliated with The American Lutheran Church.

Augustana Coll. (ELC), Sioux Falls, S. D.

Camrose Coll. (ELC), Camrose, Alta.

Capital U. (ALC), Columbus, Ohio

Clifton Coll. (ELC), Clifton, Texas (combined with Texas Lutheran College in 1954)

Concordia Coll. (ELC), Moorhead, Minn.

Dana Coll. (UELC), Blair, Neb.

Jewell Coll. (ELC), Jewell, Iowa (closed in 1924)

Luther Coll. (ELC), Decorah, Iowa

Luther Coll. (ALC, with inter-Lutheran cooperation), Regina, Sask.

PLU (Pacific Lutheran University, formerly ELC and formerly called Pacific Lutheran College. Now ALC, with inter-Lutheran cooperation)

Texas Luth. Coll. (ALC, with inter-Lutheran cooperation), Seguin, Texas

St. Olaf Coll. (ELC), Northfield, Minn.

St. Paul Luther Coll. (ALC), St. Paul, Minn. (merged with Wartburg College in 1934)

Waldorf Coll. (ELC), Forest City, Ia.

Wartburg Coll. (ALC), Waverly, Iowa. (This is a combination and continuation of five colleges, two of which bore the name Wartburg. Between 1894 and 1933 Wartburg College was at Clinton, Iowa, and Wartburg Normal College as at Waverly. In 1933 they were merged at Clinton; in 1935 the college was relocated at Waverly.)

To make this list of ALC-affiliated colleges complete, we have added the name of California Lutheran College, Thousand Oaks, Calif., which opened officially on September 11, 1961.

An independent school which is frequently mentioned is Lutheran Bible Institute. When "LBI" stands alone, it means the main school in Minneapolis (Golden Valley). When otherwise, then the location has been given.

Theological Seminaries:

Ev. Luth. Sem. (ALC), Columbus, Ohio

Luther Sem. (ELC), St. Paul, Minn.

Luther Sem. Sask. (inter-Lutheran cooperation), Saskatoon, Sask.

Trinity Sem. (UELCL), Blair, Neb. (Combined with Wartburg Seminary in 1961)

St. Paul Luther Sem. (ALC), St. Paul, Minn. (sometimes called Phalen Park Seminary because of its location; combined with Wartburg Seminary in 1932)

Wartburg Sem. (ALC), Dubuque, Iowa

We deem it helpful to give here a brief resume of the main synodical origins and alignments that led to the formation of The American Lutheran Church, and from which our clergymen have come.

The former American Lutheran Church (ALC; German background) was formed in 1930 by the union of the Buffalo, the Iowa, and the Ohio synods, with headquarters at Columbus, Ohio.

The former Evangelical Lutheran Church (ELC; Norwegian background) was formed in 1917 by the union of Hauge's Synod, the United Norwegian Church, and the Norwegian Synod, with headquarters at Minneapolis.

The former United Evangelical Lutheran Church (UELCL; Danish background) was organized in 1896, with headquarters at Blair, Neb. It was formed by a union of The Danish Evangelical Lutheran Church Association in America (organized in 1884) and The Danish Evangelical Lutheran Church in North America (organized in 1894). It was named The United Danish Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. The name was changed (by dropping the word "Danish") in 1944 to its present name.

These three church bodies (ALC, ELC, UELCL) united to form The American Lutheran Church January 1, 1961. The present volume includes the Clergy Roster of this new church.

We regret that we were forced to go to press without photo and/or biography of some men. In these cases, where complete information was not available, we have given only the name and address as they appear in the current Year Book. Proper notice was given by letter and by other media to all men on the roster. Responses were coming in right up to the cut-off date.

We sought diligently to include changes of address up to November 1, 1961, but we are aware that many such changes were inadvertently missed. This book is principally an historical volume and does not purport to remain up to date for very long. The current addresses of pastors are, of course, to be found at any time in the current Year Book of The American Lutheran Church.

May all these labors be to the glory of God, and to the strengthening of the church.

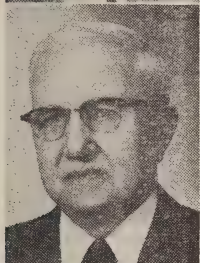

Gerald Giving, editor.
